REGISTER TODAY.

GREAT MANY CITIZENS of Salt A CREAT MANY CITIZENTS A Lake county who are entitled to a vote at the election three weeks from today have not yet had their names placed on the registration books. Som of them have simply overlooked the matter; others feel that this is what is known as an "off year" and therefore it is not important that they should vote. The idea is entirely erroneous. This is an "off year" in the sense that no presidential election is on and that a full list of state officers is not voted for, but the election this year is of as vital importance to Utah as any election that has ever been held This election will determine whether a candidate, whose only pretended qualification for preferment lies in the fact that he is an apostle of the Mormon church, shall or shall not be elected to the senate of the United

This election will determine whether or not the Republican machine in Salt Lake county is powerful enough to elect brewer and wholesale saloonkeeper to the state senate. This election will determine whether ability or money shall be recognized as the supreme test of candidates for political preferment. Are these important matters? Is it not necessary that every man and woman entitled to a vote should be in a position to cast that vote?

Today another opportunity for registration will be afforded. All whose names are not on the registration books should take this opportunity to put them there. There will be just one more registration day, Oct. 28. Something may happen between now and then that will prevent the unregistered from taking advantage of that chance. The offices in the various districts will be open until 9 o'clock this evening. Surely, in all those hours it will be possible to find time to attend to this important duty.

No citizen whose name is not on the books will be permitted to vote three weeks from today. This fact The Herald desires to impress on all who may read these lines. It also desires to impress them with the fact that a duty postponed is too often a duty omitted. By all means register today so that you may be in a position to file your protest against dictation by the Republican machine in Salt Lake county.

The election is important. Your in-

A PROBLEM SOLVED.

THE HERALD desires to congratulate the Z. C. M. I. and its efficient engineer, Mr. W. H. Bywater, for the intelligent manner in which they have done away with the smoke nuisance. Some months ago, appreciating the necessity of getting rid of the unsightly, unhealthy and discomforting clouds of black smoke that poured daily from its stack, the Z. kind. If a Democrat rally is large and remedy the evil at any cost.

Yesterday with two automatic stokers in operation, with the furnace fires at white heat, with every wheel in the Z. C. M. I. shoe factory turning, with the big 200-horsepower engine easily carrying its heavy load, there was not a particle of smoke coming out of the big stack. This is fine all such matter to the edito a plain statement of fact which any page, which is right and proper. citizen can verify through a visit to the Z. C. M. I. boller room.

In striking contrast to this stack were the others about the city, all of and fine cinders for blocks around. The Z. C. M. I. and Engineer Bywater have demonstrated that this is absolutely and entirely unnecessary. The Utah Light & Power company, the Consolidated Street Railway company and the other corporations which have menaced the health and destroyed the comfort of the people have now before them an example which public sentiment will force them to follow.

Estimates show that automatic stok ers pay for themselves within a very few years through decreased consump tion of coal, so it is to the financial interest of all corporations and office building owners to install them. And even if they did not pay their owners, the health consideration is sufficient to warrant their installation. The Herald believes little urging will be neces sary to induce those interested to stop making smoke.

If they persist, however, there is an anti-smoke ordinance, under which they can be fined until they do adopt some method of smoke prevention. For years Salt Lake has been behind other cities in this matter; for years tourabout the evil. Now the remedy is plain. To quote a homely old adage: "The birds that can sing and won't sing must be made to sing."

WILL MR. HOWELL ANSWER?

CANDIDATE HOWELL has thus far falled to answer the question asked him several times by The Herald as to whether or not he will support the president's pet measure of reciprocity with Cuba on the basis of admitting Cuban raw sugar to American ports free of duty. So silent has he been on this point that the conclusion that he is afraid to answer is irresisti ble. Now The Herald would like to ask the Cache county candidate another

Will you, Mr. Howell, if elected to succeed Congressman Sutherland, lend your support to the Fowler currency

If you have never read the propose neasure we have pleasure in informing you that it is a Republican project fathered by a Republican congressman and warmly received by the Republican members of the house. Its primary design is the creation of a banking trust founded on what is known as 'asset currency." The bill was introduced in the house at the last session but, in the rush attendant on the clos ing hours, it never reached a vote.

But its sponsors have already given notice that they will bring it up as early as possible after the opening of the short session next December. An effort will then be made to enact it into law. Should it fail to pass or should it not reach a vote, your Mr. Howell, will, if you are elected, have

Howell, will, if you are elected, have an opportunity to vote for or against it. What will you do? In view of your lack of frankness on the reciprocity question, The Herald confesses that it has scant hopes of securing an avowal from you on the Fowler bill, but the inquiry is made in good faith. Generally speaking, if the Fowler bill becomes a law the bankers of the country will be given absolute control of the currency of the country. They will have power to establish a central bank with branch banks all over the land, each empowered to issue currency based on the scheduled assets of the institutions and on nothing else. In other words, there would be a return to the old "wild cat" banking system under which bank notes were looke currency, you intend to vote for it if the opportunity presents itself, Mr. Howell, the people of Utah have a right to know it before they go to the polls. Speak up, Mr. Howell.

PARTISAN NEWS REPORTS.

THE TROUBLE with intensely partisan newspapers is that they carry their partisanship into their news columns. This was illustrated by a report of a Democratic rally in Heber, published some days ago in the morning organ of Republicanism. That report said the chairman of the meeting was compelled to rise in the midst of Judge

King's speech and implore the people not to leave the house. It has since developed that the statement was altogether untrue. The only foundation for the story was that at the close of Judge King's talk a number of those present, who thought the programme was concluded, started to They were informed by the chairman that another speech was to be made, and nearly all remained to hear it. These are the real facts of the matter, facts which the Tribune's correspondent knew as well as anybody in Heber. Nevertheless, he sent in a distorted and partisan report, and doubtless he was encouraged to do so through readdividual liberty is involved. See you ing the other wildly partisan reports that the warning here given is not in furnished the Tribune from other secvain. Register today and register tions of the state. Indeed, it is enearly. spondents are instructed to distort the

The unwisdom of such a policy is easily demonstrable. A paper that carries its animosities into its news columns deceives its readers and is not entitled to credence. Republicans as well as Democrats want to know exact conditions. If a Republican rally is a big event it is proper for the news columns without comment of any C. M. I. authorized Mr. Bywater to enthusiastic no possible good can be conserved by a lying report of it in Complete success has crowned his the Republican organ.

Really great newspapers all over the ountry never descend to such basely partisan manipulation. Newspapers that print the news want their news to be true, otherwise it is not news They hire men whose business it is to write editorial matter and they con-

Newspaper readers are entitled to the facts in political campaigns just as they are entitled to the facts regarding other events. If they get somewhich were belching smoke and soot thing else they are worse off than if they read no newspaper at all.

> We desire to call attention to the fact that the Republican state committee is unjustly discriminating against Salt Lake people in refusing to let Senator Kearns give one of his justly celebrated recitations here. The Salt Lake public likes to be amused as well as the public outside, and we trust the ommittee will reconsider its decision.

According to the published itinerary, Senator Kearns is shortly to visit the Lehi sugar factory. We should think he'd be ashamed to look it in the face.

on with such suspicion that they were not accepted at their face value outside of the immediate territory of the issuing bank.

Another provision of the bill makes silver dollars redeemable in gold at the demand of the holder. This is another attempt to reduce silver to the level of a purely token money and to perpetuate the gold standard, If, knowing the full purpose of the bill, which has the support of a majority of the members of the house committee on banking and currency, you intend to vote for it if

The choir will take part. Professor McClellan will play a couple of numbers and Miss Gates will sing two of her favorites, besides the love duet from "The Bohemian Girl" with Mr. Easton. The hour of the recital is 2:30.

"Hearts of Oak," one of the old James A. Herne standbys, begins its engagement at the Salt Lake theatre tonight. The play is familiar as a beautiful example of Herne's art and will draw splendid patronage.

Manager Pyper was somewhat surprised to learn through an evening paper last night that the gale of seats for "The Strollers" would begin this morning at his house. In the same column the eager public was informed that Lionel Barrymore was to have a part in John Drew's play this year, and that Henrietta Crosman would go to Wallack's theatre next week. As Barrymore made the hit of the geason in the part he "is to have" about six weeks ago and Miss Crosman has been crowding Wallack's for over a month, the news failed to create a sensation. Manager Pyper was somewhat sur-
